The use of this website and the services offered to you are subject to the conditions of this Terms of Use. The Patient Portal services are only available to users who have requested and been provided access by Jackson County Memorial Hospital (JCMH). JCMH reserves the right to update or change the Terms of Use at any time for any reason by posting the modified Terms of Use on the Patient Portal. If you disagree with any modifications, you must cease all access to and use of the Patient Portal. Your continued access to and use of the Patient Portal will deem your acceptance with the modified Terms of Use.

USE OF SERVICES:

- You agree that you will only use the JCMH Patient Portal for legitimate reasons associated with your health care or the healthcare of another when assigned by the patient as Proxy.
- You may request a JCMH Patient Portal account for yourself, your minor children that are twelve years old and younger, individuals eighteen years or older who have given you written authority (Proxy) or individuals thirteen years or older that you have written authority to make healthcare decisions. You may not request or access the JCMH Patient Portal for anyone else. If you request an account on behalf of a Proxy, you will be required to provide documentation of your authority (for example, a durable power of attorney) before you can receive access to that person's health information. This must be done in person in the Health Information Management Department at Jackson County Memorial Hospital.
- You understand that the Patient Portal does NOT provide medical advice. It is not a substitute for professional medical advice, diagnosis or treatment. You should always seek the advice of a physician or other qualified health care provider with your health questions.
- Please note that PATIENT PORTAL COMMUNICATIONS SHOULD NEVER BE USED FOR EMERGENCY COMMUNICATIONS OR URGENT REQUESTS. Instead, call your doctor or seek immediate attention in the nearest Emergency Department.
- Patient Portal communications will be used only for limited purposes. The Patient Portal should be used with caution. If there is information that you don't want transmitted via online communications, you must inform the JCMH Health Information Management Department.

You further agree you will not transmit any unsolicited or unauthorized materials, advertising, junk mail, spam, chain letters, pyramid schemes or other forms of solicitation.
- You will not intentionally transmit any material that contains software viruses or other codes, files or other programs designed to interrupt, hack, destroy or limit the functionality of any computer hardware or software that would interfere or disrupt the Patient Portal's services or servers or networks connected to and supportive of the portal.

- JCMH cannot be held responsible for any delays in online communication, transmittal or accuracy of information.
- Follow-up is solely your responsibility. You are responsible for scheduling any necessary appointments and for determining if an unanswered online communication was received.
- You are responsible for taking steps to protect yourself from unauthorized use, such as creating a strong password and keeping it confidential. Strong passwords should be at least 8 characters with a mixture of upper and lower case letters, numbers and symbols. Simple passwords put your security and your information at risk.
- You agree to immediately notify JCMH of any unauthorized use of your password or any other breach of security. JCMH is not responsible for breaches of confidentiality caused by you or an independent third party. However, we will help you mitigate unauthorized access to your account.
